Community managed food and water security system

*327. SHRIMATI MOHSINA KIDWAI:
SHRI VIJAY J. DARDA:

Will the Minister of AGRICULTURE be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that the National Commission on Farmers, in its report, has emphasized the need for community managed food and water security system promoted with help and oversight of Gram Sabhas;

(b) if so, the details thereof; and

(c) what action Government propose to take in this regard?

THE MINISTER OF AGRICULTURE (SHRI SHARAD PAWAR): (a) to (c) Yes, Sir. The National Commission on Farmers have recommended, inter alia, launching of a programme for rebuilding water bodies with the objective to secure water and food security in the country. The Commission has further recommended that the best coordinating mechanism for such programmes is through the greater involvement of the Panchayati Raj department so that village communities play a direct and enabling role in the delivery of these schemes.

The aforesaid recommendations made by the Commission are under consideration of the Government. However, there are several programmes already in operation for repairing, renovating and restoring the water bodies; recharging the ground water; and promoting the rain harvesting; and setting up of village grain banks.
